

Family Law

Our experienced advocates can assist you with a range of matters:

- Divorce and separation
- Children
- Cohabitation
- Prenuptial and postnuptial agreements
- Domestic violence
- Mediation

We are committed to the resolution of family problems by negotiation and conciliation wherever possible and have a high success rate in negotiating favourable settlements on behalf of our clients. We work closely with experts across Simcocks in corporate, trust and property law to provide a complete service for our clients.

Our expertise lies in the ability to mix robust and rigorous litigation skills inside the courtroom with effective negotiation outside.

Simcocks has an experienced Family Law team with specialist skills in all aspects of what has become an increasingly complex and challenging area of the law.

Our practitioners are accustomed to advising in complex financial cases often with an international dimension. We can take any necessary steps to bring financial claims, including the obtaining of interim orders to protect assets and/or compel proper disclosure of relevant documents and information.

We often liaise with lawyers in other jurisdictions to deal with cases where there are assets in more than one country, sometimes held through companies, trusts or other asset protection structures.
